

THE Norwood Library Post

.....

Welcome!

Welcome to The Norwood Library Post! This will be a quarterly newsletter to keep you up to date on what's going on in the library. This is the January- March 2022 issue.

Programs

Norwood Public Library offers a variety of online and in-person programs. We hosted several Medicare programs on Zoom for adults and we will be having more Medicare programs at a later date. Our director, Mrs. Baker, has been posting some virtual story times on Facebook. Every week she reads a few books to preschoolers, infants, and toddlers. Make sure to check those great story times out! We also had an in-person program for teens. Our teen program was Anime Club, we had 5 attendees! “A good turn out for teens”, says Nadia Phillips the Anime Club moderator. Below are the next few dates for Anime Club:

Staff Picks of 2021

2021 had some amazing selections for readers! Here are some of the great books our staff enjoyed.

- The Light of Days by Judy Batalion
- Razorblade Tears by S.A. Cosby
- Lore Olympus by Rachel Smythe
- The Lost Village by Camilla Sten
- Nightbitch by Rachel Yoder

Resources

Our library offers a lot of resources! We have offered many museum passes in the past. Check out our website to see which passes we offer. We are also now offering mobile hotspots and iPads! The library has three hotspots and four iPads, all with their own theme. Ask a staff member at the desk to see if any of these awesome resources are available. Delaware County Libraries also offers multiple online resources. Some of those are Hoopla, Libby by Overdrive, Digital Magazines, Beanstack, and so much more! Go to delcolibraries.org to check out more e-Resources.

Mock Ezra Jack Keats Award

Delaware County Libraries will be participating in a Mock Ezra Jack Keats Award for the second year in a row! From February 1st- 28th read and vote for at least three of the books listed below. The libraries are offering physical copies of the books, but you can also read them online in the Libby app. Then vote for your favorite at www.delcolibraries.org/Ezra-Jack-Keats-Award or drop off your completed ballot to a local library. Be sure to check our social media pages on March 1st to see who Delaware County Libraries' picked as a winner!

- Your Mama by NoNieqa Ramos
- Time for Bed, Old House by Janet Costa Bates
- A Thousand White Butterflies by Jessica Betancourt-Perez and Karen Lynn Williams
- Jump at the Sun by Alicia D. Williams
- Eyes That Kiss in the Corners by Joanna Ho
- Bird Boy by Matthew Burgess
- Areli is a Dreamer by Areli Morales
- Amira's Picture Day by Reem Faruqi
- Shirley Chisholm Dare by Alicia D. Williams
- How to Wear a Sari by Darshana Khiani

Longwood Gardens Teen Art Contest 2022

Longwood Gardens is hosting a Teen Art Contest! Longwood Gardens asks you to create an original artwork depicting a tree; either real or from your imagination inspired by the book Canopy Career Chronicles and the theme of trees. The contest will be from February 1st- 25th at 5 p.m. The local library winners will be announced March 12th! Winners will receive a sketch pad and pencil kit, a ticket for up to 4 people for entry to Longwood gardens, and their artwork displayed at Rose Tree Park and part of the annual Poetry Contest Anthology. Artwork will be accepted in-person and online at www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest. There are also a few rules shown below.

- Students in 6th-12th grade are encouraged to submit artwork to their local library or on-line at www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest from February 1st through February 25th at 5 p.m.
- All artwork should be inspired by The Longwood Garden Community Read book Canopy Career Chronicles and the theme of trees.
- Entries must be an original artwork depicting a tree(s); either real or from the student's imagination.
- Entries may be hand drawn or painted. No photography or 3D.
- Original artwork must be 9x12 or smaller. (If submitted electronically, we will print it out at 8 1/2 x 11)
- For in person drop-off: The student's name, email and grade should be written on the back of the artwork with the completed entry form attached. All electronic submissions should be submitted here: www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest.
- Only one artwork per person may be submitted. Artwork must be original with no copyrighted material. All artwork must be appropriate for view by the general public, including children.
- DCL reserves the right to photocopy, scan, photograph, and video artwork as well as photograph and video artists for use on our website, social media and StoryWalk® and invites other media to do the same.
- DCL is not responsible for any damage to artwork in transit. Artwork will be returned after April 1st to the local library. Questions? Contact Cheri Crow at ccrow@delcolibraries.org

Mascot Contest

Norwood Library needs your help creating a mascot! Design an original mascot that we can use in our newsletter and display in the library. There are only two rules. One, we would like the mascot to be an animal or an animal of your own creation. Two, your artwork must be hand drawn or painted. No photography or 3D art please. Other than that, it's up to you! Once you have created your mascot, send it to Norwood@delcolibraries.org or message us on Instagram or Facebook @NorwoodPublicLibrary. The contest will end March 1st. Have fun and we can't wait to see your drawings!

Conclusion

That wraps up our newsletter. Make sure to follow us online for more updates. We're on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. Our Facebook and Instagram is Norwood Public Library, and our Twitter is @NorwoodPublic. Also check out Libcal to see our upcoming programs.

READ MORE ON OUR WEBSITE

Norwood Public Library
513 Welcome Ave.
Norwood, PA, 19074
A Member of the Delaware County Library System